BUSINESS ARISING

New members

New nominee to the Committee Stephanie Doran and returned nominee Paul Gilby were present at the meeting and were welcomed by Chair Cr Paula Wriedt to attend as guests until their nominations are endorsed by Council at which time they will become full members.

Blackmans Bay BBQ

As was requested at the June meeting, the committee was informed that the pricing of the Blackmans Bay BBQ shelter had been determined by the need for the structure to conform to a high wind rating.

Kingborough Community Enterprise Centre

Scott Dufty from the Kingborough Community Enterprise Centre will be including links to the Access Advisory Committee's information brochures in the Centre's newsletter which reaches a wide range and number of businesses.

Kingston Park Pardalote Parade

Input provided by Access Advisory Committee members on the design elements of Pardalote Parade at Kingston Park were passed on to members of the steering committee. Anj Jenni Manager of Community Services has left her position at Council. Staff to determine the procedure for Access Committee input into Kingston Park design elements.

CORRESPONDENCE IN

None.

CORRESPONDENCE OUT

Access flyers are to be sent out with Development Applications for visitor accommodation and other commercial premises applications.

DEVELOPMENT APPLICATIONS

Committee members were shown the Development Application submitted for an upgrade to visitor facilities on Lighthouse Rd South Bruny. Comments to be made independently by members or to be sent through the Access Advisory Committee.

OTHER BUSINESS

Annual Access Forum

A proposal was received from Glenorchy City Council's Access Advisory Committee to establish an independent advisory group made up of representatives from southern Tasmanian Council's Access Advisory Committee. It was proposed that the group could meet annually and take up an advocacy role on issues which are beyond the scope of local government agencies.

Members of the Access Advisory Committee agreed that the proposal could be worth pursuing. Staff to follow up and provide further information at the October meeting.

Sharing of Printed Resources

A request came from Glenorchy City Council's Access Advisory Committee to use Kingborough's access information flyers as a template for producing their own version of similar documents. The Committee agreed that allowing Glenorchy to use the documents as a model for their own brochures was a good step in advancing the work of all Access Committees.

Film Screening

Initial arrangements for a Kingston screening of the film 'Highest to Lowest' have been undertaken. Costs and a date are yet to be determined.

Information Sessions for Local Businesses

Following on from correspondence with the Community Enterprise Centre it was suggested that Staff to follow up by inviting relevant business operators to attend an Access Advisory Committee meeting.

NEXT MEETING

The next meeting of the Access Advisory Committee is scheduled to take place on Wednesday 3 October 2pm at the Council Chambers.

CLOSURE:

There being no further business, the Chairperson declared the meeting closed at 3.05pm.
