

This track allows walkers to reach a lookout on a peninsula in the middle of Stinkpot Bay. A charming bush track brings you to the lookout which has stunning views across North West Bay. Weeds used to choke the bush along the track, but dedicated local volunteers have cleaned the area up and planted the reserve out with native trees.

15 minutes one way

0.5 km one way

Limited parking along Howden Road.

Mostly narrow bush track.

Do not approach cliff edges.

Closely supervise children.

